Objective:

“To prohibit, prevent and eliminate any conduct by students which constitutes ragging”

Introduction:

An educational institution is a temple of knowledge and wisdom where learning community enter to grow in wisdom. The basic aim of education is to provide, the youth power, the future of our country, value based and quality-oriented education to achieve this end. It is a primary duty of the all the authorities concerned to build a healthy, congenial and peaceful academic ethos. Hence, there should not be any room for any sort of indiscipline and cases of law and order in the premises. Yet in the some of the colleges and universities, a few cases of ragging are reported which vitiate the whole atmosphere and bring a feeling of fear and shame which is absolutely not tolerable and permissible in a civilized society.

Anti- ragging is a great challenging task which Honourable Supreme Court of India and University Grants Commission New Delhi have taken it very seriously and directed to take such measure to curb and control it in such a manner that no such incident takes place within the premises of the institutions. In this respect that Sagar Institute of Research & Technology, Bhopal also has implemented anti-ragging policy. Anti-ragging Committees of the college continue to focus on the issue so that no such unwanted incident takes place within the campus.

Under the instructions and guidelines of the Department of Higher Education and the State Government of Madhya Pradesh from time to time, Sagar Institute of Research & Technology, Bhopal administration too has taken this issue seriously knowing its consequences on the lives of students and the status of the college. Apart from Anti-ragging committee, Discipline Committee and Women Grievances Redressed Cell have already been active to monitor the activities of the students so that nothing uncalled for happens in the campus of the institute. On the recommendations of UGC our college has made following action plan:

Action Plan:

1. Constitution of Anti-ragging Committee/cell.
2. Display Anti-ragging committee member list with mobile Numbers, Anti Ragging warning displaced at prominent places the institute campus.
